

“We don’t deserve this”

The Impact and Consequences of US Sanctions

Venezuelans line up for water

DW/Michael Fox

A report by the Sanctions Kill Coalition

DOWNLOAD REPORT HERE

SCAN ME

SANCTIONS KILL

The U.S. policy of economically attacking independent countries has persisted for 60+ years. Today, some 39 nations are under direct or indirect US sanctions. This is economic warfare for political ends.

An independent review

A coalition of social justice and human rights organizations called “Sanctions Kill” has conducted an independent review of the impact and consequences of U.S. sanctions. The report is based on a poll of people from Cuba, Iran, Nicaragua, Venezuela and Zimbabwe plus fact finding on the ground in Syria and official reports and independent research.

Key Questions:

The report raises important questions:

- * Why don’t more Americans know about the impact of US sanctions?
- * Could US officials face criminal & civil liability?
- * Are US Unilateral Sanctions illegal and in violation of the United Nations Charter?
- * Why is this policy continuing? What should be done?

Key findings in the report

- * 71% of world nations believe that US sanctions violate international law and the UN Charter.
- * Sanctions harm US farmers and companies who seek mutually beneficial trade with target countries.
- * There has been a virtual media blackout of the impact of sanctions and world-wide criticism.
- * Many thousands of civilians have died as a direct or indirect consequence of US sanctions.

WWW.SANCTIONS KILL.ORG

“We don’t deserve this”

The Impact and Consequences of US Sanctions

Venezuelans line up for water

DW/Michael Fox

A report by the Sanctions Kill Coalition

DOWNLOAD REPORT HERE

SCAN ME

SANCTIONS KILL

The U.S. policy of economically attacking independent countries has persisted for 60+ years. Today, some 39 nations are under direct or indirect US sanctions. This is economic warfare for political ends.

An independent review

A coalition of social justice and human rights organizations called “Sanctions Kill” has conducted an independent review of the impact and consequences of U.S. sanctions. The report is based on a poll of people from Cuba, Iran, Nicaragua, Venezuela and Zimbabwe plus fact finding on the ground in Syria and official reports and independent research.

Key Questions

The report raises important questions:

- * Why don’t more Americans know about the impact of US sanctions?
- * Could US officials face criminal & civil liability?
- * Are US Unilateral Sanctions illegal and in violation of the United Nations Charter?
- * Why is this policy continuing? What should be done?

Key findings in the report

- * 71% of world nations believe that US sanctions violate international law and the UN Charter.
- * Sanctions harm US farmers and companies who seek mutually beneficial trade with target countries.
- * There has been a virtual media blackout of the impact of sanctions and world-wide criticism.
- * Many thousands of civilians have died as a direct or indirect consequence of US sanctions.

WWW.SANCTIONSKILL.ORG